DEATH OF J.H.LEMON

HAD SERVED THREE TERMS AS STATE REPRESENTATIVE.

WAS ILL BUT TWO DAYS

Had Lived on the Same Farm Near Clearmont, For Forty-two Years—No Funeral Arrangements Made.

James H. Lemon, well known Nodaway county farmer ,died this morning at his home near Clearmont, following a two-days' illness of pneumonia Mr. Lemon is survived by his wife and six children, four sons and two daughters. No arrangements for the funeral have been made.

Mr. Lemon was seventy-five years old at the time of his death and had been a resident of Nodaway county since 1875, removing here from Illinois. He has resided on the same farm ever since he first came to the county and during his residence has acquired a large number of acres adjoining. Mr. Lemon was a member of an Illinois regiment of infantry during the Civil war and at the war's close had reached the rank of brigade provost sergeant. In 1904 Mr. Lemon was elected a member of the state legislature where he served several terms with credit and distinction. It was due directly to his efforts while a member of the legislature that Maryville secured the state Normal school, he having been the originator of the bill introduced before that body.

RULES FOR CAMP VISITORS

Write to Man You Want to Visit so That He Can Send a Pass Giving You Permission to Enter.

John Mutz, of Co. L, 356th Inf., at Camp Funston, writes the Democrat-Forum that rules governing the visits of friends and relatives of the men in camp are being rigidly enforced, and encloses in his letter a copy of the regulations which are as follows:

To those desiring to visit Camp Funston:

1. Do not come before 4:30 p. m., except on Saturdays and Sundays, nor before noon on Saturdays, as troops are at drill and you will not be able to see any men prior to those hours.

2. Write the man you wish to visit, so that he may get a pass and mail it to you, which will enable you to enter the camp.

3. Do not bring cameras to the camp.

4. If you bring lunches, carry them in a box or basket, in which scraps and paper may be put. It is forbidden to throw such things on the ground. If you come by automobile, stop promptly on orders of any sentinel and do not go over any road forbidden.

5. If possible, delay your visit until completion of the Rest House for women now under construction, where toilet facilities will be provided. It is expected this will be completed by about November 1. It is desired to keep visitors away from the troops' barracks, except on the first Saturday of each month, which will be set aside to enable friends and relatives of soldiers to visit the barracks and see how the men live. Remember that at other times the only privacy possible to the soldiers is in their barracks and the immediate surroundings, and though it may be pleasing to one man to have his friends and relatives around, it is embarrassing to the soldiers not interested.

C. E. KILBOURNE,
Lieutenant Colonel, F. A., N. A.
Chief of Staff.

Mr. Mutz says that the heating of the barracks has about been completed and that everything is now quite comfortable. Battalion and regimental drill is now being given.

Mrs. Ghormley Improving.

Mrs. Wilbur Ghormley of Hopkins, who underwent an operation yesterday morning at St. Francis hospital for appendicitis, is improving.

ASK ROOMS FOR DELEGATES

Committees Will Start Listing Accommodations For Convention Visitors Early Next Week.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon of the rooms committee, who will canvass the city for accommodations for delegates to the State Sunday School convention, it was decided to make a charge for room and breakfast of seventy-five cents, and all who furnish rooms will be advised of necessity for making a standard price for all visitors. This does not include rooms and breakfast at other than private homes.

The various committees who will list the rooms in each of the four wards will start on their rounds early next week and hope to have all details of entertainment worked out without further delay. It is urged that all who have rooms that may be used for the three days convention give the committees their co-operation in securing as many rooms as possible.

Reports of committee and organization for ensuing year.

10:00—Address: Hon. P. G. Holden, Chicago, Ill.

Afternoon.

1:30—Round table and general discussion led by Hon. P. G. Holden, open to farmers, their wives, teachers of public schools and citizens in general. This round table will probably have much to do with the increased production of food stuffs.

The number of teachers attending the sessions of the Northwest Missouri Teachers' association was increased by arrivals last night and early this morning to more than five hundred. Sectional meetings for High school teachers, elementary graded schools, and rural schools occupied the forenoon today, with county superintendents and teachers discussing the various questions and problems that are met with in school work.

This afternoon, following vocal selections by Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Superintendent I. I. Cammack of Kansas City, gave an interesting talk on the school work.

Supt. Cammack's address was followed by a meeting of teachers arranged by counties with county superintendents in charge.

Yesterday afternoon Superintendent H. B. Wilson, of Topeka addressed the teachers on "Significant Education," in which he reminded them of the lessons in efficiency that were being taught by the war when men and women trained for specific things were needed. Mr. Wilson laid emphasis on the need for character and health building as well as training for mental accomplishments.

In the evening Dr. Cameron Harmon ,of Missouri Wesleyan College, delivered an address in which he pointed out the need for doing little things well. Said Dr. Harmon, "Do not neglect the little tasks because you can do bigger things. The real joy in life is in doing the little things we find to be done every day and the poorest way in the world to get along is to neglect to do the things that appear insignificant." Dr. Harmon gave a number of interesting personal experiences illustrating his address.

After Dr. Harmon's address all present were directed to the library

RED CROSS SOCIETY APPROVES FOUR MORE AUXILIARIES.

WANT OLD LINEN PIECES

With the completion at the Library building of the rooms for use by the Red Cross society the new headquarters is a busy place with workers engaged there most of the day. The Nodaway county chapter has established a record for being one of the strongest and most active in the state with more workers enlisted than in any of the rural counties. Within a few days it is expected that four or five electric machines will be in readiness for making bandages and dressings and other appliances that are needed will add to the capacity of the society for furnishing the things desired.

Mrs. George Bellows, in charge of the work at headquarters, is anxious that every family in Maryville have an opportunity to do something for the Red Cross and points out the need for clean white rags for snipping, old bath towels, counterpanes and any old linen that is clean. Persons having any of these are asked to bring them to Red Cross headquarters. The rooms are open always after nine o'clock in the morning and if there is no one there they may be left with Miss Grace Langan, librarian. A much appreciated gift last week was an electric iron presented by the Maryville Electric Light company.

The new rooms are fitted up for real comfort and for the convenience of those who work there, with plenty of light and heat, large tables supplied with chairs and other things needed, and within a short time the output of bandages and dressings will be a very considerable addition to the supply for the army and navy hospitals.

The society is also in receipt today of seven sweater sets given by the Baptist Ladies auxiliary, the first auxiliary in the county to make a gift of this kind. The sets contain knitted sweaters, bed and regular socks, scarfs, helmets and wristlets. The money to purchase the yarn, $27.00, was given by members of the auxiliary who also gave to the society several dozens of hospital handkerchiefs, table napkins and tray cloths, all nicely hemmed, from old materials contributed by various members.

At a meeting last night of the executive committee of the Red Cross the following auxiliaries were approved:

Westminster Guild, Maryville; Miss Neva Sage, chairman, Mrs. W. W. Turner, secretary-treasurer.

Mutual Auxiliary, Burlington Junction; Mrs. Willard Carpenter, chairman, Mrs. C. A. Williams, treasurer, Mrs. G. L. Yaple, secretary.

Loyal Auxiliary, east of Burlington Junction; Mrs. E. A. Baker, chairman, Mrs. Elihu Carter, treasurer, Miss Bernice Baker, secretary.

There are now in the county seventeen auxiliaries having the approval of the society with several others in the course of formation.

FAITH GOES WITH ACTION

Dr. Wright in Able Sermon at Baptist Church Last Night—Interest in the Meetings Increase.

Increasing interest is being taken in the revival services now in progress at the First Baptist church, a crowd that almost filled the auditorium of the church being present last night to hear Dr. Wright, who had for his subject "Faith in Action."

Dr. Wright pointed out that action without faith was of no account and that nations as well as individuals must be possessed of the desire to do, as well as the faith to believe. The speaker pointed to the fact that our European Allies had faith in the United States aiding them in their struggle and put that faith into action by sending representatives of the government to this country and they were not disappointed in getting the things they sought.

David Hughes, who will lead the singing, will arrive tomorrow and will take charge of the choir. Mr. Hughes is one of the well known soloists in the South, and his singing will be a feature of the services.

HORACE LEET SELLS OUT

Grain Business and Elevator Purchased By Maryville Feed and Milling Co.—Leet to St. Joseph.

The Maryville Feed and Milling Co. today purchased from Horace Leet, his grain business and elevator located on the Burlington tracks south of the depot, and will operate it in connection with their feed business now located on West Third street. Mr. Leet, it is learned, will probably go to St. Joseph where he will enter the grain commission business.

PRIZE AWARDS MADE

BARNARD LEADS TOWN SCHOOLS WITH THE MOST EXHIBITS.

BELLE GROVE A WINNER

The number of exhibits in the corn and grain classes at the annual display of the Nodaway County Agricultural and Domestic Science association were fewer this year than in former years, while in the domestic science class there were many more than are usually shown. Entries in the cake and candy classes were few, it having been announced that because of the conservation of sugar these articles were not desired.

Barnard was awarded the prize for having the largest number of exhibits of any town school in the county. There were twenty-six entries from this school. Belle Grove was awarded the prize for having the greatest number of exhibits of any rural school district in the county.

KANSAS COAL MINERS OUT

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—Six thousand coal miners are out in the Kansas field today and more are going out hourly. Thirty-five mines are idle. Their return to work depends on whether Director Garfield accepts the Kansas City settlement which he objected to. If Garfield still opposes the settlement then the strike will spread and will be called officially, declared August Douchey, vice-president. Alex Howalt, state president, is in aWshington to confer with the fuel administration.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Conference this morning with committee of miners and operators of the Southwestern field and Dr. Garfield expected to settle the questions involved.

IS BADLY HURT IN RUNAWAY

Hopkins Man Thrown Out of Wagon When Team Scared at Engine—Dr. Kirk Called From Meeting.

H. C. Edmiston of Hopkins, an employee of H. C. Morehead of the Hopkins Journal, was badly inpured in a runaway shortly after noon today when a team he was driving became frightened at an engine near the depot. The team ran away throwing Mrs. Edminston out, dragging him for a considerable distance. There were no physicians in Hopkins at the time, all being in Maryville in attendance at the County Medical meeting. Dr. C. W. Kirk was called from the meeting and he immediately left to look after the injured man.

EMMETT LOWE DIES IN CALIF.

Body Will Be Brought Back to Maryville Sunday Night For Burial.

Emmett Lowe of this city died Tuesday afternoon at Kerman, Calif. The body will be brought to Maryville and will arrive here Sunday night. No arrangements have been made for the funeral services.

Mr. Lowe, in company with his grandfather, George Lowe, left Maryville the first of September for California, for his health.

Mr. Lowe is survived by his mother, Mrs. Kate Lowe, and three sisters, Marie, Mabel and Lola Lowe, living west of Maryville.

Hallowe'en Fighter Fined.

Randolph Holt pleaded guilty today in police court to fighting, having become engaged in an altercation on Hallowe'en night with several boys who were out for a good time. Other members of the party were arrested but succeeded in settling their cases before being brought to trial. Holt was fined.

PLAYING WAR GAME

"REAL SOLDIERS NOW"

Are Working Like Regulars, Despite the Fact That 90 Per Cent Never Saw An Army Camp Before.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Today they're playing the game of war. The "white" army—the defensive body—will have their outpost on a general line with Pawnee Point, Williston Point, Taylor Point and Saddle Back near the camp.

The "blue" army by scouts and patrols will endeavor to locate the "white" army positions. After receiving reports from his scouts, the "blue" commander will form his forces to attack at the points which he thinks offer the best chanches for success.

The "white" commander will move backward or forward and will reinforce threatened points with his reserves as the action develops.

The "white" army consisted of a regiment with attached artillery engineers, signal corps and sanitary trains, real war style and the "blue" was composed of the same stalwart young men.

Nobody but a close observer would have believed that these soldier boys were anything but regulars. As a matter of fact more than 90 per cent of them never saw an army camp before they came here two months ago. They were clerks, lawyers, plumbers, bankers' sons and men from all walks of life who had never had any training before. But they're all real soldiers now.

LASHER FOLKS MAKE MERRY

At Hallowe'en Party An Indoor Track Meet Furnished Fun For Both Old and Young.

Lasher school, five miles southwest of Maryville, was the scene of a community meeting and Hallowe'en social last Wednesday night. The children were dressed to represent witches, goblins and ghosts, and met the guests at the door pinning on each a black cat, bat, or a jack-o-lantern, thus separating them into three divisions.

A program suggestive of Hallowe'en was given and the pupils of the agriculture class gave a lecture on corn. Following the program everyone present was ask to join their division, and an indoor track meet was held. The division scoring the highest number of points received a loving cup.

Among the various races was a foot race. A man from each division was chosen, and the one having the longest fcot was declared the winner. Another race was a liquid race, when three women hurriedly drank a glass of water. This was followed by a dry race, in which a man from each division was chosen, and each man ate ten crackers, the one finishing first winning another point for his division. Other races were the pious race, peanut race and the potato race.

The children of the school acted as host and hostesses, and after the track meet refreshments of pumpkin pie and cider were served. Every patron of the school district was present at this meeting, and at the close of the program gathered in groups and enjoyed a social hour. A number of the men entered into a high kicking contest, and old men who had not kicked for twenty years joined in this sport as heartily as the younger people.

Miss Ruby Ruddle, one of Nodaway county's most successful school teachers, is teaching the Lasher school this year.

where a reception was held in honor of the visiting teachers. The Normal faculty, students, and the members of the Commercial Club and their wives acted as hosts and hostesses.

Patriotic decorations lent color to the scene and in the large east windows were pictures of Washington, Lincoln and Wilson, around which were inscribed these words, "Unity, Liberty, These Three With the American Teacher." Above all the American flag and red, white and blue bunting was effectively used and in front of the windows was a table banked with white chrysanthemums. Tiny flags shaded the lights and bunting was draped here and there.

Punch was served by a bevy of Normal girls to all the guests present, and music was furnished throughout the evening by the Normal orchestra.

WAR DECREASES SUICIDES

St. Louis, Nov. 2.—A decrease of 21.8 per cent in the number of suicides in St. Louis and similar decreases in other American cities is an indication of the profound influence of the European war in this country, according to statistics compiled by The Spectator, a New York publication. In St. Louis the rate of suicides between 1911 and 1915 amounted to 35.7 per 100,000 of population. In 1916 the rate was found to be 27.9.

Record-Breaking Speed Boat Offered U. S. Government
The express cruiser Shadow III, capable of a sustained speed of 36.1 miles per hour and at least 42 miles per hour in a dash, is the fastest craft of its kind to submarine chasing, is said to be the fastest boat of its type, of Indianapolis, ever built. Carl G. Fisher, of this city, and owner of the boat, has placed this craft and another of its class, worth $50,000 each, at the disposal of the Navy Department. The Shadow III, in recent power boat races off Miami, Florida, broke her own world's record over a 10-mile course. Her fuel capacity is sufficient for a 500-mile cruising radius. Her cabin has excellent accommodations for six people, and the engine has been made to run on a specially refined gasoline. She is fifty feet long with 12-foot beam.

CANNED GOODS CHEAPER?

Food Administration Predicts An Immediate Reduction, Following Adoption of License System.

Washington, Nov. 2.—An immediate drop in prices on canned vegetables was predicted by the food administration today as a result of putting into operation the license system for wholesale dealers. Canned goods, it was said, were bought by dealers at low prices last spring and can be sold for less than the present market prices.

Dealers charging more than a reasonable profit are liable to forfeiture of their licenses to do business.

Retailers will be controlled to an extent also through the operation of the licensing system. Those charging more than the food administration considers just, will find their supplies cut off in orders to wholesalers to cease furnishing them with goods.

The food administration warned dealers who have not applied for license blanks that they will be charged with violations of the food law if they continue to sell goods.

A BANQUET "A LA FRENCH"

Marines Will Give Novel Affair for Charity—"on a Rolling Field of Kitchens."

Washington, Nov. 2. — A dish of beans, a "side order" of potatoes, and a cup of coffee, served "a la trench," —$1.59.

That is the complete menu for a "banquet" to be given by United States Marines at their Quantico training camp, near here, during the first week of November. The "banquet" will be prepared on "rolling field kitchens," and the guests, officers, their wives and enlisted men, will dine from the tin mess-gear, used by Marines in the field.

Through this novel affair, the Marines expect to raise over $10,000 and will turn the money over to an established war charity.

Are You Looking For This

100 YEARS OLD

"The kidneys play a most important part in causing premature old age and death—the more injurious the poisons passing through the kidneys the sooner comes decay"—so says a distinguished physician, who further advises all people who are past thirty to preserve the vitality of the kidneys and free the blood from poisonous elements, such as uric acid—to drink plenty of pure water—sweat some every day and take Anuric before meals.

This Anuric is put up in tablet form, and can be obtained at almost any drug store. For that backache, lumbago, rheumatism, "rusty" joints, swollen feet and hands, due to uric acid in the blood, you will find Anuric quickly dissolves the uric acid as hot water does sugar. It was discovered by Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

Prevent premature old age by taking a little Anuric before meals and live to be a hundred.

A STRANGE CASE

Kansas City, Mo.—"When I was about 15 years old I had St. Vitus' Dance very badly. My people gave me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery and in about six months I was completely cured. I think it a most wonderful cure, too, because when I commenced to take these medicines I could not walk across the floor nor feed myself. At that time I also was developing into womanhood and I feel sure that the 'Favorite Prescription' helped me a great deal in development, as I have never had any sort of woman's weakness to contend with."—MRS. THE HOOVER PLEDGE.

(By W. C. V.)

Every American man, woman and child should enter into the spirit of food saving. In the final analysis it is up to the United States to win the war and to feed the world while it is doing so. Not that our allies are not doing the best they can, in fact, doing great work, but they have been bearing the heavy burdens for three years past and, in the closing hours of the struggle, the United States will be the right bower in this big game.

Every true American wants this terrible affair over with as soon as possible and every one can help in some way; some can help in many ways. In the conservation of foodstuffs, you help the nation in its crisis and help yourself at the same time. It makes no difference what we may have thought of the food administration bill in all its details, it is now the law of the land and we must all pull together. The so-called Hoover pledge has been modified so that it is not objectionable.

Food conservation means not only to rob the garbage can of its richness and its fullness, but to relieve the railroads of their unnecessary burdens and to create in every way possible a surplus of those things which are best adapted to export for the use of our armies and our allies abroad. To this end we should first observe the doctrine of the clean plate. Cut out the waste, use up the scraps. Next eat, as far as possible, those things which are raised in your own community and thus relieve the railroads of the burden of unnecessary transportation and the markets of unnecessary shortages. This is not the time to be hauling things over the country just to satisfy a fantastic appetite. That you may be able to pay extra prices for extra things is no excuse in this case. Self-denial is the essential thing at this time.

Wheatless meals are necessary to create a surplus of wheat to send abroad. It is no hardship where the women know, as they do in Missouri how to make corn bread. Your stomach is better off by a liberal use of corn bread. At the present prices it may or may not be cheaper, but the idea is not to save money for yourself but to save wheat. Every mother who has a boy in camp or in the trenches wants him and his associates comfortably fed. Every relative, every friend, has the same feeling and every man who has invested a dollar in a Government bond wants the proceeds from that dollar to go as far as possible. Everybody wants our cause to succeed and the war to end as soon as possible, and it will if everybody "does his bit," however modest that may be.

Nobody is expected to starve himself. Eat as much as you want to, of as may be good for you, but eat the perishable stuff and local products as far as possible and, above all, be reasonable.

TRY CITY MANAGER PLAN?

Kansas City Council Will Decide Whether City Will Adopt New Idea at Meeting in December.

Kansas City, Nov. 2.—A city manager plan for Kansas City will be submitted to city council December 15. Under the plan the council and the mayor sitting as a board of city directors shall elect a city manager.

The manager is to appoint and dismiss the department heads, but the board of directors, if it sees fit, may remove a department head by a three-fifth's vote.

The council is to consist of not less than eight aldermen nor more than twelve.

PARCEL POST RATES TO GO UP

Additional Mail Charges Will Be Effective December 1.

A law requiring additional postage on parcel post packages will go into effect December 1. The law provides that packages requiring twenty-five cents postage will need additional postage of one cent. If the postage is more than twenty-five cents the extra tax will be two cents.

Stamps used in the payment of this tax will be supplied to postoffices by the commissioner of internal revenue.

This law applies to parcels post matter exclusively and is not to be confused with the new postal laws applying to first class mail.

ONLY GOOD DAILY PAPER THAT HAS NOT RAISED ITS SUBSCRIPTION PRICE YET

The St. Joseph News-Press Is About the Only One in This Section of the Country That Can Still Be Had at the Old Rate of $3.00 Per Year.

With one exception—the St. Joseph News-Press—the metropolitan newspapers in this section, have followed the general tendency to raise prices and have increased their mail subscription rates. The enormous increase in white paper and all other materials for publication of newspapers is the occasion for the advances, which have ranged from 33⅓ to 100 per cent. Kansas City papers that were $3.00 and $5.20 are now $4.20 and $7.80. Topeka papers which were $4.00 are now $4.50 and $5.00. Des Moines papers formerly $2.00 are now $4.00. Omaha papers that were $2.00 and $4.00 are now $3.00 and $6.00. Lincoln papers that were $3.00 are now $4.00. St. Joseph dailies, with the exception of The News-Press, have gone from $3.00 to $4.00. The St. Joseph News-Press has not raised its price and is still $3.00 per year by mail. This paper has endeavored to meet the increased cost of paper by economies in its circulation department and has dispensed with its traveling collectors, relying upon its subscribers to forward their subscriptions when due.

The News-Press continues to be as it has been, an excellent daily newspaper giving the news of the world. It has many interesting and important features and an accurate and complete market report. The News-Press cartoons are widely copied and its editorials are accepted as substantial, patriotic expressions of sound American views.

No increase in subscription price has yet been announced, but with the steadily rising markets it is impossible to say how long the old rate will continue. Those who want a thoroughly high-class, independent, patriotic American newspaper with the complete news of the world and commercial markets, should subscribe promptly at the old price of $3.00 per year. Check or money order.—Adv.

An egg laid for every yolk made

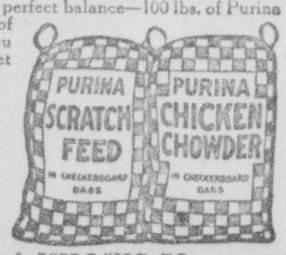
Most hens lay less than half of the yolks that are formed because white elements are lacking in the grain feed they eat. Wheat, corn, oats, barley, and kafir contain (above bodily maintenance) an average of 224 yolks and only 154 whites. The excess yolks which are absorbed by the hen, mean not only fewer eggs, but they form fat which cuts down egg production.

	Yolks	Whites
Purina Chicken Chowder	182.05	282.55
Purina Scratch Feed	247.49	142.11
Combined Ration	429.54	424.66

Note the perfect balance and the large quantity of white and yolk elements supplied.

More eggs or money back

The money paid for Purina Chicken Chowder will be refunded if hens do not lay more eggs when fed Purina Chicken Chowder as directed with Purina Scratch Feed than when fed any other ration. You take no risk. 99 out of 100 hens eat too much grain which cuts down egg production. Feed the perfect balance—100 lbs. of Purina Scratch Feed to each 100 lbs. of Purina Chicken Chowder and you will actually use less feed and get more eggs.



Purina Feeds come in checkerboard bags only.

The Making of A Soldier of The Seas

By RICHARD BOECKEL

A Marine Corps Cantonment, Nov. 2.—Front line trenches, exact reproductions of those in Northern France, have been constructed by the marines in training here. They cover nearly a square mile of territory, three quarters of a mile distant from the cantonment. Until one is upon them the only evidence of their presence is a low rise in the ground at irregular intervals.

These rises, not over three or four inches in height, are machine gun emplacements. The machine gun is raised just above the level of the trench and above it there is a roof covered with heavy sand bags. The sand-bagged roof makes the shelter proof against hand grenades and shrapnel, but is ineffective against artillery shells or aerial bombs.

The machine gun's muzzle peeps out from a very small hole. It can be operated only in a straight line when in use in the trench. In front of the emplacement there is a netting of wire spread over the ground and this is covered with canvas, over which is laid a layer of branches and dirt. The purpose of this covering is to prevent shrapnel kicking up dirt that would clog the aperture through which the machine gun throws its deadly fire.

In the latest machine gun shelters there is a small door of woven fagots operated by a wire in the hands of one of the machine gun crew. This door is raised only when the gun is brought into play and lowered immediately thereafter. The machine gun crew lives in close quarters, but is fairly comfortable compared with the state of the infantryman who holds the section of the trench between machine gun emplacements. The machine gun fighter at least has a shelter over his head. The infantry man has none.

Like the infantryman, the machine gun operator is trained to the use of the bayonet. In the pit alongside the machine gun emplacement there usually is hung a dummy made of branches of trees.. It is swung from two heavy sticks laid across the top of the trench. Through the middle of it there runs a long pole, the end of which is thickly padded. When fighting is at a standstill bayonet practice goes on in the trenches. One man stands behind the dummy holding the pole and attempting to ward off the strokes of the soldier armed with a bayonet on the other side.

Many of the marines frankly confess that they have no taste for cold steel. "I'm like a Dutchman in that respect," said one non-commissioned officer. "I don't like fire or steel. A great many of us feel that way about it, but we're all ready to face it when the time comes."

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

HOW UNCLE SAM TRAINS FLYERS

Student Aviators at Mineola Field Learn to Worry the Germans.

SOME TESTS OF SKILL SHOWN

Men Go Up About Half Mile, Then "Slide" Down at Sharp Angle—And, Say, This Is No Job for Nervous Man.

Mineola, L. I.—While hundreds of thousands of men in America are learning how to jab bayonets through German soldiers in a leisurely manner, some of the most promising embryo officers of the American forces are here learning how to destroy Boche birdmen. To judge by their training, they will do the job both efficiently and quickly.

Under the direct supervision of Bert Acosta, one of America's most successful civilian aviators, scores of candidates for commissions in the aviation section of the Army Signal corps are being taught to extricate themselves from the most dangerous positions imaginable while several thousand feet from the ground.

For military reasons it is forbidden for details of the fighting instruction for aviators to be made public. Here however, is an illustration of the dangerous situations the aviators are being put through:

While about two thousand feet above ground, with the machine going nearly straight up, let her quietly slip backward and downward, tail first, for 75 or 100 feet, then get the machine under control again, go up still higher, and try it once more.

It's quite easy—that is, it is easy to watch Bert Acosta or Edward Holterman, his first assistant, pull it off. All you have to do is to let the machine drop backward and downward until you feel that you have gone far enough, then pick up speed and make her go upward again. Simple!

Another simple little test of your skill as an aviator is to ride up 2,000 or 3,000 feet, then come down in a spiral, with the wings of the machine almost vertical. Acosta recommends this for nervous persons.

Notwithstanding the apparent recklessness of the flyers, each "stunt" is carried out in an absolutely scientific manner. Instead of courting danger for "the fun of it" the aerial movements are carefully planned with the factor of safety always being among the first things considered. Nothing is undertaken for exhibition purposes except to demonstrate how to escape death over the battlefield.

"To fly around putting the machine at all kinds of angles and going through all the manipulations may appear silly and dangerous," Acosta said. "As a matter of fact, it is the only safe thing to do when you are above an enemy's battlefield.

"Infantry officers in our training camps are telling their men that 'Ignorance courts death, in a battle with bayonets. In the aviation service ignorance is certain death."

High in the ranks of the men seeking commissions in the aviation corps stands Capt. Cushman A. Rice, veteran of half a dozen wars on the American continent and a former member of the general staffs of three brigadier generals of the American army.

Captain Rice, "The Cuban Millionaire," made a fortune in Cuba following his resignation as a captain of infantry in the regular army in 1902. He is temporarily a sergeant in the corps of men slated to receive commissions. Recently he told how it feels when you make your first flight in an airplane.

"When Mr. Holterman, who was driving the machine, and myself were gliding along about 1,200 feet up, for some unaccountable reason I felt a strong desire to leave my seat and walk out on one of the wings to learn how it felt out there. I don't know why it was, but I felt that desire so strongly for about ten minutes that I almost had to go.

"Really you feel quite safe and secure, no matter how high you go, when you have confidence in the man driving the airplane—or when you are driving it yourself, if you really understand running it. Everything is so new and different way up there that you do not have time to think of being afraid."

Captain Rice will be among those whose time to go to France is rapidly approaching.

Captain Rice stands out as a man who took the hard road to a commission, although he could have had one without working for it. Notwithstanding the fact that he could have become a lieutenant colonel of infantry, because of his military record, he chose to enlist in the aviation corps and work for his commission, which he will receive at the end of the regular five months' training period. His military record includes participation in three Latin-American revolutions, the Spanish-American war as a captain in the regular army, the Philippine campaign in command of a detachment of mounted scouts and service in China.

A number of candidates here are awaiting commissions, which have been authorized, and will shortly leave for France to go into the last stages of their training over there. Additional candidates from the various ground schools will replace them.

For Pueblo Visitors.

Mrs. Eugenie H. Schenck and Miss Kate Schenck entertained at dinner today for Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McKee and son, Joseph Totterdale, and Mrs. Frances Totterdale of Pueblo, Colo., who are guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Isabel Worst.

Quilting Party.

Mrs. John Adams was hostess at an all day quilting party yesterday at her home northwest of Maryville. At the noon hour an elaborate two-course dinner was served to the following guests: Mrs. Lon Thompson, Mrs. Noah Duncan, Mrs. Robert Adams, and baby son, Mrs. Harve Thompson, Mrs. Earl Duncan, Dora Lockhart, Lucile Duncan, Pauline, Shelton, Wilson and Lois Margaret Thompson.

Davis-Kellogg Wedding.

Miss Dora Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Davis, living six miles east of Clearmont, and Walter Kellogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kellogg, of the same neighborhood, were married at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Franklin Hotel in Maryville. Judge W. L. Johnson performed the ceremony in the presence of the bride's brother, Lewis Davis, and her cousin, Mrs. Frank A. Turner. Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg will make their home for a time with their parents near Clearmont. They were the honor guests last night of a wedding dinner given at the home of the bride's parents.

Met With Mrs. Coile.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. S. A. Coile yesterday afternoon. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Fred Yeomans. Mrs. Clara Heath read a paper on "Our Plaza Schools." Mrs. Joseph Jackson gave a review of the book entitled, "Missions in Brazil," by Robert Speer. Mrs. G. H. Colbert conducted the roll call to prayer. During the business session a report of the Synodical Society meeting, held recently in St. Joseph, was given by Mrs. Colbert, the delegate from the local society. Refreshments were served during the social hour by Mrs. Colbert, Mrs. Anna McClurg and Mrs. Fred Jamison. Two visitors attended the meeting, Mrs. Harry Heath of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Hull, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. Edwin Wells.

Hallowe'en Party.

Mrs. R. N. Black was chaperon at a party given Wednesday night at the home of Miss Cleota Graham, on East Fourteenth street. The house was beautifully decorated with black cats, witches, laughing jack-o-lanterns and autumn leaves. In one corner of the room was the fortune teller's booth. Miss Eula Woodard the fortune teller, disclosed the great events of the future for each one present. Lunch was served by the hostess, consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, pickles and cider. Those present were: Mrs. R. N. Black, Mr. and Mrs. T. Woodard, Jessie and Lula Demott, Eula Woodard, Claude Hornbuckle, Thelma Culverson, Jessie Stafford, Bessie Graves, Leland McKee, Eva McMahon, Alfred Crane, Lura West, Stanley Huston, Gladys Culverson, Guy McKee, Amelia Butherus, Eldon Coffelt, Sylvia and Blanche Frazee and the hostess.

Hallowe'en Party.

The Loyal Workers of the M. E. Sunday school, entertained at the home of Miss Opal Snyder, northeast of Barnard, on Wednesday evening. The crowd gathered at 7:30 o'clock and were met at the door by Miss Polly Broomstick and two ghosts. The house was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves, red berries and was lighted by jack-o-lanterns, made of pumpkins. Those present were: Misses Maggie Mattson, Chloe and Edith Campbell, Ora and Eva Rasco, Bonnie Hainey, Hazel Moore, Myrtle Goforth, Nellie and Ollie Leeper, Belle Richey, Opal Snyder, Vesta and Tillie Drydale, Paul and Homer Stalling, Dale Goforth, Glen Wohlford, Ervin Baker, Cecil Wheir, Albert Rascoe, Clarence Snyder, Everett and Denver Gilbert, Floyd Moore, Leslie Lucas, Johnnie Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hagan and son, Chilton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and cider, were served and in the center of the table was a large pumpkin filled with fruit.

W. W. W. Hallowe'en Party.

Another of the many good times enjoyed by the Mowry W. W. W. was the Hallowe'en party given by Mr. and Mrs. James Clayton at their country home northeast of Pickering. The house and grounds were appropriately decorated with fodder, autumn leaves, jack-o-lanterns, black cats, witches and of ghosts. Each guest was given a donkey ride. Entering the house through a window, and accompanied by ghosts, were taken upstairs where other stunts were waiting to be performed. Going down stairs they were allowed many a good laugh at the expense of the late arriving guests. After the crowd had all gathered a general good time was had, all sorts of Hallowe'en pranks being indulged in. Later pumpkin pie, ginger bread, and cider were served.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Will Noakes, George Byers, Otis Casey, Carl McArthur, Marion Rickard, Stewart Robinson, Dennis McGinniss, Shell Garten, Frank Hinton, Albert Hinton, Walter Runnels, James Neal, John Neal, Mrs. Fannie Robinson, Mrs. Robert Garten, Roy and Forrest Hinton, Ervin Neal, Ray and Harold McArthur, Charles Rickard, Orville McGinniss, Romaine, Fred Morlin, and James Morris Garten, Horace Noakes, George Byers Jr., Lauren Runnels, Wanda Hinton, Helen Masters, Margaret Rickard, Stacie and Charlotte McGinniss, Violet Robinson, Lillian and Norabelle Noakes and the host and hostess.

Pioneer Willing Helpers.

The Pioneer Willing Helpers held a Hallowe'en social Wednesday night in the school house. The house was decorated with jack-o-lanterns and corn fodder. Music on the phonograph was enjoyed by all. Games of all sorts were played. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Milt Swearingen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Kessler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gay and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Wright and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson and family, Mrs. Will Rhoades and family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gay, Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Evans, Mr. and Mrs. George Gay, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Moore, Miss Anna Shanks, Mrs. Maggie Westfall, Leo, Lewis and Gene Shanks, and John Price.

Attend the Theatre and Help Win The Great War

The U. S. Government has placed a 1c War Tax on 10c theatre tickets, 2c on 15c tickets and 3c on 25c tickets. All patrons should gladly pay the extra cent or two, because they know that the tax is helping us to win the war. Go to the moving picture shows more than ever and "Do Your Bit."

Good wholesome amusement in this unsettled period is necessary for cheerfulness, Lord Northcliffe, who was recently in this state, has urged the English people editorially in his great newspaper, the London Times, to continue going to the theatre. He called their attention to the relaxation which it meant to Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War.

NO WAY TO COLLECT ACCOUNT.

Is No Legal Way To Secure Payment From Wife of Enlisted Man.

All persons serving in the army, navy and the marine corps of the United States and including the draft army which is now forming, are automatically exempt from suit for the collection of debts during the period of their enlistment. It is of some importance to know that there is no legal way to collect an account from the wife of an enlisted man in the United States service.

Too Soon To Remove Screens.

It is a bit too soon to take down screen doors and window screens. Flies are still on the job and if this weather continues these miserable pests will remain here all winter. This is a good time to fight flies and every one killed now will go a long way towards reducing the number next year. Take early mornings, before the sun comes up or before houses, stores, offices and other places begin to be warmed up, flies lay dormant and hundreds of them can be killed without much effort. Swatters should be kept in good working order just as long as flies stay on the job.

All Choked Up With Catarrh? Why Continue Makeshift Treatment?

Sprays and douches will never cure you.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing painful and difficult breathing and other discomforts. But the real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs.

This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface. To be rid of Catarrh, you must drive the disease germs out of your blood.

Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S., which completely routs from your blood the Catarrh germs, for which it is a perfect antidote.

S. S. S. is sold by all druggists. If you wish medical advice as to the treatment of your own individual case, write to-day to Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. B Atlanta, Ga.

A TREATMENT FOR NERVES

Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from choice roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

COMMUNICATION

Facts that the farmers and merchants of this county ought to know.

"In order that the great Farm Club movement may be presented in a definite manner to the farmers of this township and joining townships, which are as yet unorganized. Also those who have had dealings with us, and unjustly formed conclusion as to the real purpose of this organization, we submit the following:

"In this hour of grave trial, the farmer stands as the only large unorganized body in this nation. For many long years our manufacturers, merchants, bankers, lawyers and doctors have had their organizations; and the same is true of the working man, under the banner of American Federation of Labor. No sooner had Congress passed the war resolution than the banking interests, steel mills, railroads, coal operators and organized labor selected able men, organized them into War committees—and from that hour to this they have been constantly on guard of their respective interests. But the farmer was not found there—why? Because he was not organized. He whose occupation is the nation's prosperity—the backbone of any nation—was not there because he was not organized. Therefore, it is no wonder that Congress compelled us to accept a maximum price on wheat without giving us any protection on the hundreds of things which the farmer must buy, and for which the sellers are at liberty to get all they can while the getting is good.

"Any farmer of average intelligence knows that there is something radically wrong with the great business of farming. That the hundreds of millions of dollars of farm mortgages debt which is growing larger year by year.

"Experts tell us to grow two blades of grass where one used to grow. But we say, organize yourselves, compel the speculator to pay us a fair price for the first blade before we grow the second.

The trouble is not in the scientific farming among farmers. It is because from time out of mind the farmer has been compelled to pay the other fellows price for the things he buys and accept the other fellow's price for the things he sells. If a farmer goes to a merchant to buy he states his price; if the farmer complains, the merchant states that it cost him so much, and that he is not in business for his health, thus the price remains. If the merchant is honest the farmer can't complain, for this is business. But how suddenly the tables are turned when the farmer arrives at the stock yards with his productions. Do the packers say: Now how much do you want for your hogs or cattle? No sir, it is—we will give you so much, take that or go back home. Many a time farmers are forced to sell at a loss. The same exists with corn, hay, wheat or oats.

It is into this grave situation that the Farm Club movement intrudes itself with the motto: "Production cost, together with a reasonable profit." A motto which announces to the world that this great organization has made up its mind to place the farmer in position where, like the manufacturer, merchant, banker and other organized industrial forces of the nation, he can compel a price on the farm products which will henceforward mean that no thrifty farmer will have to work for nothing.

"Get down off the fence, you weak-kneed farmers, and doubting local dealers with your saying, they won't stick together; no, it is impossible. For when you say that, you practically imply that farmers haven't got sense enough to stick together.

"Because certain farm organizations in the past have failed, it is no foregone conclusion that the Farm Club will fail also, but instead of organizing stores or instead of starting a political or religious upheaval, the farm clubs come into the game with a new program, which proposes to invade the market place, which is the abode of thieves who are robbing us.

"The farm club movement differs from the farm organization of the past, in that they are friendly to the country town, and therefore, contemplate no farmers' stores, which have always come to grief in years gone by. A good country town means higher land values for the surrounding farms. So when we built our kite and blazed upon it "production cost together with a reasonable profit," we attached the tail to fly it. "Live and let live." In short, we are willing to live and let live—for no organization which is utterly selfish and which lives for itself alone, will ever succeed, because it does not deserve to succeed.

"It is the purpose of the farm clubs to handle in carload lots shorts, bran, flour, hay, corn, oats, cotton seed meal, linseed oil meal, coal, tankage, farm seeds, binder twine, salt and fertilizer. These we intend to purchase of a local dealer or direct from the mills. If the merchant is in line with his prices on carload lots we give him first chance. If not, we ship it ourselves. These are needful for farmers in his production to be obtained as cheap as quality will permit. Every business man, every manufacturer does the same, so why shouldn't we?

"Some accuse us of hoarding by buying in carload lots, also state that we are not patriotic by hoarding. We wish to state that the time is now when the farmers are showing their patriotism by not only supplying the largest percentage of men to our armies than any other three industries. We are, one and all, striving to increase production. But when we decide to order in carload lots to save time and money, they accuse us of not being patriotic. We, who, when forced to face the cold and storms to town to buy flour, mill feeds and salt at a sack or barrel at a time, seek to eliminate this by ordering in quantities, are accused unjustly.

"There are at the present time over 1,000 farm clubs in Missouri. If any school district or united school districts wish constitution and by-laws for organizing, address Wm. Hirth, Columbia, Mo., who is secretary of the Missouri Farmers' Association.

AN ABSENT MINDED DRUMMER.

A jewelry salesman stepped out of the waiting room of the depot Thursday night, says the Burlington Junction Post, boarded Wabash passenger train No. 3—and left $40,000 in diamonds on one of the seats in the waiting room. He discovered his loss about the time he reached Coin, Ia., and sent a frantic message to "Speck" David, who does the night trick at the depot. "Speck" walked out into the waiting room, picked up the package, which apparently had never been touched, and took it into the office. The salesman returned on No. 14, gave David a dollar for his trouble and went on his way rejoicing. Forty thousand dollars. Wow!

"The Little Duchess.

The most charming little girl on the American screen is little Madge Evans, and she will be seen at the Empire Theatre tonight in "The Little Duchess," the newest World-Picture Brady-Made. Madge has a delightful role in this production and she demonstrates the fact by her acting in this play that she well merits her elevation to stardom. Madge has the part of a little girl whose mother dies in a tenement house. Madge is sent to an orphan asylum but escapes and joins a circus. Then the representatives of her grandfather, a stern English lord who cast off his son for marrying behind him, find her and takes her to England. She is unhappy there for a time because her grandfather who hates women, makes her dress like a boy. But finally she makes a discovery which causes her promotion to the proper sort of garb. Madge is delightfully charming in this production. Her role fits her like a glove and she makes the most possible of her every opportunity.
